

QUADRICENTENNIAL COMMITTEE OF SOUTHERN RENSSELAER COUNTY

2009 Quadricentennial Celebration

Events through the year

SCHEDULE OF PROGRAMS FOR 2009

- June 7, 2009, Sunday, 2 PM Stuart Lehman, Education Coordinator, NYS Capitol, will present "'Light on. the Past', The Great Hudson-Fulton Celebration of 1909 and its Legacy." East Greenbush Community Library
- September 20, Sunday, 2 PM: Shirley Dunn, noted author and historian, will present "River Indians: Mohicans Making History." East Greenbush Community Library. (Exhibits provided by Fort Crailo and the Greenbush Historical Society will be at the library during the month of September.)
- October 18, Sunday, 2 PM Kathy Sheehan, Rensselaer County Historian, will explore the history of the towns and cities that border the Hudson. River from Schodack to Schaghticoke using historic maps, photographs, letters etc. from the Rensselaer County Historical. Society archives. Rensselaer City Hall, 62 Washington Street.
- November 8, Sunday, 2 PM Captain Chip Reynolds, Director of the New Netherland Museum and Captain of the Replica Ship Half Moon will be guest speaker. Maple Hill High School, Schodack.